

Fifteen Hundred Dollars In Student Body Treasury, Says James Sullivan

Delegates Are Named For Compton Round-table Conference

Report from the treasurer, James Sullivan at the Board of Control meeting last Monday, revealed there are $1,570 accredited to the student body in the bank at the present time with several requisitions and uncollected accounts outstanding.

It was announced that Santa Ana junior college will introduce the topic of "Junior College Libraries" in the round table discussion at Compton on April 13, when junior colleges from all of Southern California will meet for the spring conference. Edwin Gerhardt, Spencer Stewart and Eleanor Turner were appointed as official delegates to attend the conference.

Lyles McNairy was appointed manager of the tennis team.

George Tobais, former manager of the football team and present commissioner of athletics was requested by the board to handle all correspondence concerning the Occidental football game over to Dean Fisk who will try to collect the $60 which Occidental agreed to pay when the local team played a practice game on their field.

Whittier Student Speaks To Y.M.C.A.

Goro Murata, president of the Cosmopolitan club of Whittier college, in a speech before the Santa Ana campus "Y" at a recent meeting, told of the impressions of the foreign student upon his arrival in America.

"The Asiatic students first comes in contact with the false America portrayed in the newspapers," said Murata, "and it is not until he is invited into an American home that he gets a glimpse beneath the rough surface and can see the best of American life."

"American movies are carefully censored when shipped to Japan," Murtat said, "and it is through these that the Oriental gets a true view of America from his own land. The influence of these movies is very great in Japan."

Murata invited the Santa Ana "Y" to a conference at Whittier Friday and Saturday to exchange ideas for the extinction of individual, national and racial prejudices.

Orpheus Troupe Organized For Visits To High Schools

Arrangements are being made for concerts to be given at high schools by the Orpheus troupe, organized every year by college students to go to high schools outside of Santa Ana and advertise the college.

There will be variety to the program as the men's quartette (vocal) and the college trio (instrumental) will appear, probably assisted by a reader. Charles Haas, tenor, and Bill Fox, cellist, will give solos.

Complete Program For Fiesta Given

Committee At Work On Many Features For Spanish Event

An undertaking never before tried in the local junior college is to take place on May 17, 18, 19, in the form of a Spanish fiesta. This is to be the largest and most elaborate affair in the history of the junior college.

Seniors from all Orange county high schools are to be invited. These seniors will be shown the campus, the buildings, and other equipment of the college in hopes of their attending this institution next year.

The first day of the fiesta is to be for the college students only. The afternoon of the second day is to be for the visitors. The guests will be entertained with exhibition baseball and hockey games, diving and swimming events.

In the evening there will be dinner at six o'clock, free to the visitors and fifty cents to the college students. There will be an informal dance held in the gymnasium after dinner. This will be followed by an operetta given in the high school assembly.

A Spanish costume ball during the evening of the third day will complete the fiesta.

The people in charge of the fiesta are John Allen Fitz, chairman, Lawrence Minge, Catherine Best, Virginia Powell, and T. H. Glenn, faculty chairman.

Drama Class Plays Before Local Club

Dr. Russell, the psycho-analyst and interpreter of dreams discovers that Stephen Brewster equals Stephen be-rooster, and the first syllable of Henrietta is hen. In this way he finds that Henrietta's sister, Mabel, has a suppressed desire for Henrietta's husband, Stephen.

This interpretation causes the complications of the plot of "Suppressed Desires", a short two-act play given by members of the drama class for the Modern Woodmen of America on the evening of March 20. Julia Hyde played the part of the wife, John Minter the husband, and Mildred Lukens the sister.

O. K.'s Will Frolic On Friday, the 13th

Casting all superstitions aside, the O. K.'s have set the date for their next party for Friday, April 13.

It will be held at Mrs. M. E. Ellis's home, 1018 S. Main Street, at 8 o'clock.

No definite plans for entertainment have been made, but it is expected that crazy games, fitting for the date, will be played.

It was hinted that the refreshments might consist of ham and eggs.

Picture Ahead

Snapshots! Clever ones! Crazy one! Any kind! That is what Edwin Settle, snapshot editor of the Algal, is demanding.

Bring your cameras to school and take pictures of your friends. If you have any clever snaps that were taken at the Baldy trip or at any school affair, hand them in to Edwin Settle for the snapshot page.

Santa Ana To Enter Oratorical Contest

In order to stimulate and develop forensic ability among junior college students of Southern California, an annual oratorical contest has been planned, to be held sometime in May.

A representative will be chosen from each school, as a result of try-outs to be held at every junior college within the next few weeks.

The speech is to be limited to twelve minutes, and it can be upon any subject, preferably on some thing timely, and vital to present thought. The school winning the contest will receive a silver loving cup, and the winner will be rewarded with a pin.

James Walker, Edwin Gerhardt, and David Cherry have definitely decided to try out for the honor of representing Santa Ana. Anyone interested may confer with C. C. Stewart or Edwin Gerhardt.

Two J. C. Women Will Attend Meet

Frances Reid and Julia Cummings, active members of the local campus Y. W., will represent Santa Ana junior college at the national Y. W. C. A. convention to be held at Sacramento, April 12-21 inclusive.

The first five days of the convention will be devoted to student problems.

The adoption of a new purpose will be the main piece of business. Maude Royden, noted woman preacher of England, will be the chief speaker at the convention.

Bill Luck' Orchestra Will play Several Popular Numbers

"Suppressed Desires", a two-act play directed by E. C. Phillips, dramatics coach, will be presented at regular student assembly today through the courtesy of Ruth Tantlinger, social commissioner.

John Minter, the helpless husband in the cast, is the cause of many laughs, while Julia Hyde as his wife and Mildred Lukens as his sister-in-law brings about much humorous action.

Several numbers by Bill Luck's dance orchestra are expected to prove an added attraction.

Barnett Appointed Frosh Bible Editor

Space for phone numbers and addresses will be one of the convenient features in the 1928-29 student handbook, better known as the Barnett, recently appointed editor. "Frosh Bible", announced Sterling.

Another new feature will be the addresses of the faculty, says Barnett, for the use of students who wish extra help or advice.

The new school song, composed by Hazel Smith, may be easily located by turning to a convenient index, also an addition.

Barnett will be assisted by George Butler, Ray Lindman, and Clark Brown. The book is published under the direction of the campus Y. M. C. A.

French Club Holds Proverbial Meeting

Every member of the French club was requested to answer roll call with a French proverb when the club met in the cafeteria last Friday afternoon.

The "Marseillaise" and other songs were sung by the entire group. Mary and Marion Bruner sang a duet.

Louise Griset, Helen Reynolds, Spencer Stewart, and Marjorie Callis gave short talks.

As the club is organized for practical application of French, features are arranged in which every member can take part. The club meets every Friday at 3:00. The coming program is to provide additional features, according to Miss Lela B. Watson, French instructor.

Letterman Club Decides To Order School Sweaters

The decision to order sweaters was made by the Lettermen's club at a short meeting following the assembly of Wednesday, March 21.

Selection of sweaters will be made soon. Almost half of the members signed for sweaters and more orders are expected, Pete Twist, the president announced.

Editorial Comment

NOT SO FAST!

How does this strike you for modern progress? "In this 'speed-crazy' time and 'time-conserving' age when our 'City Fathers' are doing away with all of our long-beloved street names and substituting therefore numerals and letters of the alphabet, and our efficiency experts are creating for us brief, snappy slogans, saving us time, talk, stationery, ink and everything else, is it not refreshing to come upon such a musical name as Little Saint Ann's Lane, Old Pye Street, Westminster, to linger lovingly over it and to realize that there was a period in the history of the world when people had the leisure and inclination and were not too hurried to write and speak of it?"—Margaret W. Ross in "Etude".

NEED OF TARGET PRACTICE?

Papers to the right of us, papers to the left of us, and all because there are a few careless people or bad aimers around the college.

Some people have not quite mastered the art of hitting the wastebasket with their wad of paper, and then there are others who are content to toss the wad on any convenient locker, library table, hall floor, or lawn.

Do we need more waste baskets or better aimers? The janitor will supply the one; students must supply the other.

Time Wasters and Space Fillers

Father: In spite of your poor work at school, I am going to buy you that second-hand fiver that I promised to you. However, I am displeased with you.

Son: That's great, Dad. Thanks a million times! Will you shake with me, dad?

Father: No, I refuse to put my foot in that pesky car.

"Who is really the boss in your home?" inquired the abrupt person.

"Well, of course Henriette assumes command of the children, the servants, the dog, the cat, and the canary. But I can say pretty much what I please to the goldfish."

Miss Martin: "Earl, there's something the matter with your singing this morning."

Earl Jessee: "Yes, I know it. I'm only hitting on one tonsil."

Campus Chatter

Great things are being planned for the sophomore class by its president, John Fitz. He is planning to raise thunder and put blocks under it. John adds that the sophomore gift won't be a pitcher for the water set left to the school one other year.

T. H. Glenn is doing his best to prevent his English 1A class becoming a "crip" course. A crip is a hard course with a soft teacher, according to the said professor.

When in college, Glenn had two such courses, astronomy and geology. "All I remember about astronomy is where the big dipper is; and all I know about geology could be written on a two-cent postage stamp," he explained.

Mr. Newcomer: "Why were you late?"

Keith Farrar: "Because the bell rang before I got here."

Place: Collegiate room.

Character: Julie Bingham.

Occupation: Nose-powdering.

Charlotte Browne: "Don't get that powder too near your hair—it might explode."

Ethics?

Seen on one of Mr. Nealley's ethics charts; "The early bird catches the worm. To the bird the catching is good, and early rising is a virtue, but to the bird it is an evil and early rising is a sad mistake."

"The cat in turn catches the bird. It is a good to the cat and an evil to the bird."

"The worm was eating the cab-bages in a man's garden, so it was good to the man when the bird caught the worm, but it was an evil to the man when the cat caught the bird that caught the worm."

Collegiate Beach To Hold
Dancing Contest Events
During Vacation

Newport-Balboa, known as the "collegiate beach", is offering special prizes for ballroom dancing and for canoe racing during Easter week, so that students from the schools and colleges who spend their vacations there will have something to work for.

Among these prizes will be rides on one of the great three-motored Ford cabin planes, which will on Saturday, April 7, formally open Orange county's new airport, near the head of Newport bay.

In addition to the well known Balboa pavilion there will be the recently built Newport pavilion at the Newport end of the beach city, and the new Rendezvous, just opened in Balboa.

Those in charge of arrangements for entertaining the students and other visitors expected during the week are hoping that entrants from every educational institution in the Southland will get into the canoe races. Conditions are ideal on the bay for this sport.

"Shut up, ya dern fool!" this is to be the meaning if not the wording of the posters the Bachelors plan to place in the halls in the near future.

The experiment is an attempt to curb the free speech and shouting that students are indulging in at present, according to grand exalted bachelor Richard Drew.

If the noise does not become nil, the faculty may decide that compulsory study hall is the only remedy.

Life of Composer Shows Music Power

When Sir Charles Stanford was fourteen years old, he set to music a somewhat long dramatic poem. He wrote the first three verses easily enough, but when the poem became too vivid and dramatic, he could not progress an inch, and so he was forced to give up.

Ten or eleven years afterwards, when he had forgotten these early efforts, he again wrote the song, this time without a hitch. Sometime after it was published, he chanced to find the juvenile attempt in an old box, and much to his surprise, found that the first three verses of his completed song were almost identical with those of his youth. "His brain had remembered when he himself had wholly forgotten and had found the way out of difficulty without his being in the least conscious of the process."

Since the radio has now become a permanent fixture in nearly every home, music students can take advantage of the good music that is being played—to hear how a great artist interprets a composition is a good teacher. Leave the dross, and make the most of your radio!

Track Conference Meet At Compton

J. C. Ready for Postponed

All arrangements have been made for Santa Ana entries in the postponed college conference track and field meet to be held next Saturday.

Fast time is expected in every event, especially in the dashes. Guyer, of the local squad, is expected to win both the century and the 220 yard dashes. Russel Hind, also of the locals will be somewhere among the point winners, along with Beatty, Twist, Bradbury, and Jacques.

Preliminaries in the dashes, hurdles, and several field events will begin at 9:30, while finals in each event will be run off in the afternoon.

While dopesters have granted Pasadena the edge, the Dons area dope-upsetting team and may yet pull up and take the honors from them.

Hockey Balls Lose To Fullerton Team

Lack of Cooperation Cost Local

Lack of team work and failure to "get going" cost the Hockey Balls a loss to the strong Fullerton team last Wednesday when the local team visited the neighboring city in an intercollegiate game.

Not until the second half did the Hockey Balls open up and hold Fullerton to a single score, which with the three goals of the first half totaled a score of 4-0 in favor of Fullerton.

Defensive playing in the second half was responsible for holding Fullerton. Though Santa Ana had the ball within the striking circle several times, the forward line failed to shoot the desired goal.

The lineup for Santa Ana was as

Don Nine Improves In Cal Tech Game

Visitors Win 5-3, But Locals
Show up Well in Fielding
And Batting

In spite of defeat, the Don baseball nine showed a remarkable improvement both in fielding as well as in batting in the Cal Tech game last Friday. The visitors proved their downfall, 5-3 because of the work of the Engineer's second baseman. He succeeded in getting four bingles out of an equal number of trips to the pan; he also scored three of the five runs.

Bratmiller pitched a good game for the Dons, considering his inexperience as a pitcher. He allowed but nine hits; the infield working equally as well, allowed no more than five tallies.

The Dons made their first score in the second inning this appearing to be their lone opportunity, until in the last of the seventh MacMillan and Edwards succeeded in stealing home on the Engineering first baseman's error.

White and Bratmiller each succeeded in getting two hits; Smiley got one.

Racket Wielders Take All Tourneys

A successful, if not a flashy start, is that of the Don tennis team this year. They have succeeded in winning both of the practice tournaments that they have engaged in this season.

Tustin, the first victim, went down 3-1. Richard Ewert, Don Park, and William Kolkhurst succeeded in winning their matches, none too easily, however; all three were forced into the third set. Tustin's third singles won from Eric Reinau for their loneliness. No official doubles were played because of the late start.

The Don seconds went to Orange Tuesday, March 20, winning from the Orange first team 4-2. Richard Ewert and Don Park, first and second singles, could not attend the tournament because of business. William Kolkhurst, George Butler and Erich Reinau played in the order named. Butler won one set and lost one; Kolkhurst did the same; Reinau succeeded in nabbing both of his sets.

Substitutions: Owens for Plank, Plank for Viau, Bruner for O'Brien for Jessup.

SPORTITORIAL

Some schools are known through their sports. This institution is not of this type as yet. Therefore, why not make it so.

First came football. Credit is due these gridiron fellows because they surely did some excellent work by at least reporting for the team.

Basketball season opened with forty candidates reporting for practice. A really surprising number for basketball in such a small institution. The team made good, as was expected.

Now the middle of track season is here and baseball has just started. Track candidates number about eight or ten while there are only about twelve out for baseball. True, a baseball team is composed of nine men, but there should be substitutes. Some coaches say that a team is only as good as its substitutes on the bench. This hold true for practically every sport.

In other words go out for athletics if possible. Certain fellows are working after school. This is their way to get through school and it is a very good way. It is these students that should not be imposed upon. However, there are other fellows that simply do not take part in college athletics either because he is a dub at that sport or because his young lady friend wishes to ride home. Truthfully Santa Ana junior college has very few of either of these types. Other students have an enormous amount of studying to do.

When a college man does not go out for athletics think first of his wealth and then of his educational capacity.

Large Turnout Expected For Opening Of Women's Baseball Season April 9

Women's baseball season opens April 9, the first Monday after spring vacation. A much larger turnout for baseball is expected than the turnout for either basketball or hockey. At least four teams are expected to be formed from the material.

All girls wishing to participate in baseball are asked to sign on the bulletin board at the north end of the hall. The baseball diamond will be placed on the men's football field, which is being rolled and smoothed for use.

Quite a few changes have been made in the method of playing. Boy's rules will be used. Pitching will be done overhanded, and gloves will be used because of the smaller size of the ball, which is to be only twelve inches in diameter. The distance between the bases will be fifty feet.

The first two or three weeks of practice will be devoted entirely to the fundamentals of baseball, which include pitching, catching, and batting. The more complicated field work will be included later in the course. Practice games are being arranged with Fullerton, Anaheim, Tustin, and Santa Ana High Schools.
